IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

BISHOP HARDING HAS GUESTS TO MEET MISS KELLER.

The Bishop of Washington gave a small party at his home in Highland Terrace last evening for Miss Helen Keller. His house guests were the Lord Bishop of Winchester, England, the Rev. Edward Stuart Talbot, Mrs. Talbot and Miss Talbot---have gone to New York, where the bishop makes an address at the Episcopal General Theological Seminary and later sails, with his wife and daughter, on the Oceanic for England.

Secretary and Mrs. Nagel and family are at their K street home, but the former is soon to leave again for the west.

Miss Marion Parker has returned from Jamestown and is with Mrs. Charles P. Russ at 1829 M street place, for the winter.

Revs. James N. Supple and J. J. Colburn of Boston, Mass., will be the guests of Mrs. Nellie P. Keeler while in this city.

Little Elizabeth Newsom of 1127 E street northeast celebrated her fifth birthday Wednesday evening, October 9. The time, from 6 to 9 p.m., was passed in playing games and partaking of refreshments. Among those present were Katherine Allwine, Dorothy Shaw, Flora Robinson, Blanche and Julia Pitts, Gertrude Derr, Edith Lindstrom, Kenneth and Harold Butler, Norman Reed and Marion Darnall.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazard Wheeler of No. 3 N street northwest have gone on a month's trip to visit relatives and friends in Williamsport, Pa., Elmira, Penn. Y., Dundee, Buffalo and Niagara Falls, N. Y.

The marriage of Miss Emily Carolyn Rittie and Mr. Edgar Muse took place last Wednesday evening at the parsonage of Kendall Baptist Church, 1312 B street southwest, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Theodor Outwater.

Mrs. Helen C. Wolf officiated as matron of honor, while her husband, Mr. George Alamo Wolf, acted as best man for the groom.

On account of illness in the family, only the immediate relatives gathered on the home of the bride's parents, where refreshments were served and congratulations extended.

Mr. and Mrs. Muse will be at home to their friends after October 21 at 321 11th street southwest.

Mrs. Frank Lombardy has gone to Knoxville, Tenn., to join Mr. Lombardy.

Mrs. A. L. White and daughter, Miss Mary White, of Sparta, N.C., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McGowan at the Cecil for a few days before going to New York.

Rev. C. W. Whitmore performed the marriage ceremony yesterday, in the presence of relatives and friends, for Miss Margaret B. Clark, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Clark, and Mr. John E. Brown, son of Col. and Mrs. John E. Brown, grandson of former Senator W. G. Brown, who were married yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's father and mother, at 321 East Capitol street.

The bride wore a traveling costume of blue cloth, with hat to match. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for New York, and Saturday will sail for Florida. After November 15 they will be at home at Knoxville, Tenn.

Harmonizing with the wild flowers and leaves, now at their autumn glory, were the decorations for the wedding of Miss Florry Adams Hopkins, daughter of Mr. Willoughby Sharp, and Mr. Gilbert Alexander Bostick, son of Sir Arthur and Lady Elliot of Stobs, Roxburghshire, Scotland. The decorative work in the little church of St. Andrew on the Dunes, at Southampton, L. I., for the ceremony was that prevailing in the Meadow Club, where the reception took place. The Rev. Percy Stickney Grant, of New York, officiated.

The bride, whose gown was of silver brocade, with a diamond necklace and earrings, and a diamond brooch, was escorted with a diamond tiara, a gift of the bridegroom, and she wore a pearl necklace with a diamond pendant. Miss J. C. Bostick, her principal attendant, wore a rose veiled with antique lace. Miss Dorothy and Eliza Sharp were flower girls, and Master Willoughby Sharp was ring bearer. Mr. Thomas G. Cook of Tuxedo Park, N. Y., was best man.

Lady Elliot wore a costume of brown, and the bride's mother was attired in an old-colored satin embroidered with an antique design.

Miss Marguerite Pearl Curry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Sheridan Curry, and Mr. Harry A. Havens were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Dr. Gray of Hamilton M. E. Church. The bride was dressed in satin and her tulle veil was caught with lilies of the valley. She carried roses and was attended by Mrs. J. L. Edwards of Cincinnati as matron of honor and Miss Bessie Birch as maid of honor. The former wore pale pink and carried a pink rose and Miss Birch carried a pink carnation and also carried roses. Mr. Horace C. Chase was best man. An informal reception followed before Mr. and Mrs. Havens left for a trip north, and upon their return they will live at 462 14th street.

St. Peter's Catholic Church, at 22 and C streets southeast, was the scene of a beautiful wedding last evening, October 10, when Miss Mary A. Hardy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Hardy, became the bride of Mr. Robert Edgar Kerley. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Stephen Morris, assisted by Rev. Father O'Brien and Father Hugh Curry.

The bride was exquisitely gowned in champagne silk, trimmed with pearls and lace and orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Her father escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage. The maid of honor was Miss Jessie Worek, a schoolmate of the bride. She wore pink champagne, trimmed with lace, and carried pink roses.

Little Miss Margaret Dorothy Kohel, six years of age, acted as flower girl and wore white lace over a pink dress. She carried lilies of the valley and roses.

The best man was the bride's brother, Mr. C. Raymond Hardy, and the ushers were Mr. Samuel P. Hardy, Jr., Mr. J. Westcott Miller, Mr. Henry A. Kruger and Mr. A. Earle Hutchinson.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms and chrysanthemums. During the ceremony Mr. Charles A. Bright sang "O Promise Me" with much effectiveness. The minister of St. Peter's, the Rev. Father Stephen Morris, gave the benediction.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom held a reception at the bride's home, 501 6th street southeast, where refreshments were served. Many handsome presents, which were much admired by the guests.

The young couple left for a short trip, which will include Niagara Falls, the Thousand Islands and Canada, returning by sea, and on their return November 1 will reside at 2247 street northwest.

Senator Don Antonio Martin Rivera, minister of Cuba, entertained at dinner last night at the New Willard in celebration of the anniversary of the ten-year war for Cuban independence.

Among the guests were the minister of Costa Rica, Senor Calvo; the minister of Bolivia, Senor Calderon; the minister of Peru, Senor Ponce de Leon; the minister of Nicaragua, Senor Castillo; the minister of Chile, Senor Sanchez Mujica; the minister of Ecuador, Senor Hecchea; the minister of the Cuban legation, Senor August of the legation staff; Senor Dr. Castellanos, Senor Ramiro Castellanos, Dr. Campuzano and Senor Barranco, vice consul of Cuba.

Mrs. S. E. Dutton of San Francisco, who for some time past has resided in Washington, sailed Saturday for Naples, to spend the winter in Italy.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Marinelli of Chesapeake Beach, Md., announce the marriage of their daughter Viola M. and Mr. Vincent Hughes, Saturday, October 5, at the Cathedral, Baltimore, Md., Rev. P. di Paoli officiating.

Mr. A. C. Horstmann, third secretary of the German embassy, has been transferred to Lisbon, Portugal, and will leave shortly for his new post.

Confirmation has been received in Washington of the engagement of Miss M. Curtis, assistant secretary of the Treasury, and Miss Laura Beatrice Merriam, daughter of ex-Gov. and Mrs. Merriam of this city. A recent rumor of the engagement was denied by friends close to the two young people, who are engaged, and the date for the wedding will be announced shortly. Miss Merriam has attracted much attention in Washington society. She was engaged to be married to Representative Catlin of Missouri, but some time ago she announced that the engagement had been broken. The reasons were not given at the time, nor since, but it has been said that Miss Merriam felt that she would be happier as the bride of Mr. Curtis, who has been away from Washington a number of weeks on vacation.

ATCHISON ASKS $43,500 DAMAGES FROM DISTRICT

Suit of Builder, Who Charges Loss From Negligence, Now on Trial.

The suit of Eugene A. Atchison against the District of Columbia, in which the plaintiff seeks to recover damages in the sum of $43,500, alleged to have been sustained by him as a result of negligence of workmen under the District engineer department, was placed on trial last Friday at the noon before Chief Justice Claiborne and a jury in Circuit Court No. 1.

Attorneys Charles W. Clagett, Henry H. Glassie and A. Leftwich Sinclair appear for the plaintiff, and Assistant Corporation Counsel Francis H. Stephens represents the District.

The plaintiff claims that between April, 1905, and March, 1906, he erected on lots owned by him, in Ingleisle terrace, between 18th and 19th streets northwest, twenty-nine three-story brick dwellings, under a permit issued to him by the inspector of buildings and according to plans and specifications approved by the District, at an average cost of $6,000 each.

He alleges that while the houses were in course of construction the District commenced to grade and pave the alley between the houses, and that the work was so carelessly and negligently done that the plaintiff was forced to remove the houses and rebuild them at a cost of $43,500.

He further alleges that the District authorities dumped the dirt taken from the alley between the houses on the Ingleisle terrace, in front of the property in question, against the plaintiff's protests, rendering the street impassable for a long time, and preventing the plaintiff from selling or renting the houses.

The houses were reasonably worth, and could have been sold for $5,000 each but for the alleged delay and negligent action of the District. He states that the houses were sold under a deed of trust, given to secure a loan on the property for $5,000 each, the amount of the trust, and that he lost the difference between the alleged value of the houses and the encumbrances.

Maryland Democrats Rally. A rally of democrats in the Seat Pleasant election district of Prince Georges county, Md., was held at the town hall, Capitol Heights, last night. The speakers were Louis L. Hahn, John H. Hahn, John H. Hahn and Frank O. Smith, the candidate for Congress in the fifth district.
